

Intern

With FIKISHA

FIKISHA (fih-kee-shuh) -
v. Swahili:
"to enable to reach"

[steps toward change]

Greetings friends, family and intern applicants,

FIKISHA is a non-profit working with street youth in Nairobi, Kenya. We center on relationships and believe that each person is worthy- that everyone can follow their heart and pursue their passions, bringing God glory and impacting the world around them.

Our organization provides food, mentoring and scholarships for street youth in the slum of Kawangware. We strive for the youth to experience the love of Jesus so that they can rediscover their dreams. We invite you to participate.

Currently, we are seeking U.S. interns. Specifically, we are looking for individuals who can contribute in the areas of...

- art
- counseling
- events
- finances
- grants
- marketing
- social media
- social work

Requirements

- Understand and embrace the vision & mission of FIKISHA

[vision]

Transforming outcast youth into loved individuals

[mission]

FIKISHA exists to inspire a cycle of love resulting in healthy communities. The FIKISHA staff and mentors walk alongside street youth befriending them and inviting them into the FIKISHA family. Through programs promoting character growth, educational opportunity and reconciled relationships, FIKISHA enables former outcasts to positively change the world.

- A learnable leader
- At least 18 years old & graduated high school
